

120.130 "R-2" Residence District--Single-Family.

A. Description of District:

This district is composed of certain land of a residential character where low-density single-family residential development has occurred or appears likely to occur. The regulations of this district are designed to protect and stabilize the essential characteristics of these areas and to promote and encourage a suitable and safe environment for family life. To these ends, development is restricted to low-density single-family residential uses consistent with residential platting.

B. Permitted Uses:

1. Single-family dwellings and the accessory structures and uses normally auxiliary thereto.
2. Home occupations when in accordance with Section 120.340.
3. Signs when in accordance with the provisions of Section 120.320.
4. Private Solar Energy Systems when in accordance with Section 120.470.
5. Accessory uses or buildings when in accordance with the provisions of Section 120.410.
6. Essential services.
7. State licensed residential facility, which provides resident services for six (6) or less persons under 24-hour supervision or care.
8. A family day care home licensed or registered pursuant to Act No. 116 of the Public Acts of 1973, as amended, where:
 - ◆ It is conducted in the bona fide private residence of the operator of the family day care home; and
 - ◆ It is conducted in accord with the requirements of Act No. 116 of the Public Acts of 1973, as amended, and the rules promulgated pursuant to said act.

9. Accessory building, prior to the establishment of the principal building on the lot, parcel or building site, for the storage of residential construction materials and tools, subject to the following conditions:
 - a. The building permit for the principal building must be issued and the foundation for the principal building must be inspected and approved before the issuance of the permit for the accessory building.
 - b. Construction of the principal building must commence within 60 days after the permit for the accessory building is issued.
 - c. The accessory building and its uses are subject to the provisions of Section 120.410.

C. Special Exception Uses:

All Special Exception Uses are subject to the provisions of Section 120.420.
